

Scavenger Hunt

Try to find as many of these as you can outside. Optional: For each item, you can take a photo or video, write a poem, draw a picture, or write down a description of what you found. At the end you will have an awesome collection of photos, videos, poems, drawings and/or observations from the nature around you.

- Something that smells amazing
- Something that moves slowly
- Something that makes a lovely sound
- What's the best hiding spot you can find?
- Try to discover something that you've never seen before.
- Something that you know would make someone else happy
- Something that is your favorite color
- Something that makes you laugh or smile
- Something that is mysterious
- Something that is changing
- Something older than you
- Something younger than you
- An interesting pattern
- Someone whom you appreciate
- Something with wings
- A really cool spot outside where you could sit a while
- Something that you are grateful for